

News Summary.

Mary Ann Loomis, charged with stealing, fell and was killed, in Cincinnati, while attempting to escape from the Police Court room by means of the lightning rod.

Hobbs, the man who gained such extensive notoriety by picking locks at the Great Exhibition in London in 1851, has disposed of his establishment in that city and is to return to Boston this fall.

General Cass has recently presented a Methodist society of Detroit, Michigan, three lots of land, on which they will erect a church this season. The land is said to be worth $3,000.

A letter from Henderson, Texas, gives a list of the sufferers by the recent fire there, making a clear loss of upwards of $200,000 over insurance.

One hundred and twenty bottles of strychnine were found in possession of the slaves.

It is estimated that the reception of His Royal Highness, the Prince of Wales, will cost the Provincial Government of the Canadas no less a sum than $1,000,000, independent of the vast amounts spent by the different towns.

We notice, by our Northern exchanges, that Wm. Gilmore Simms, Esq., our well-known novelist and poet, is ruralizing near Yonkers, on the Hudson river.

The Rome (Ga.) Courier says that Hon. David W. Lewis, of Hancock county, will deliver the annual address before the Cass County Agricultural Society, at the fair grounds, on Monday, September 26th, at eleven o'clock, A. M.

While Cook's circus was performing in Portsmouth, New Hampshire, last Monday, Mr. Armstrong, in jumping over another man on horseback, fell to the ground and broke his arm, which snapped like a pipe-stem, and was heard by all the sympathizing spectators.

The St. Louis (Mo.) Democrat says that the potato crop has been unusually prolific and fine in quality in that vicinity, and that some firms are sending off vast quantities daily, not only to the parts of that State which have suffered from drought, but to Kansas, New Mexico and even to Utah.

The geological examination of Texas, which is now going on, has revealed the existence, in great abundance in that State, of the finest clay, suitable for the manufacture of Queen's ware.

As Gen. Pierce was riding in a buggy, on Thursday, at Concord, New Hampshire, his horse took fright at a load of barrels and turned around a corner, throwing him out. He was stunned for a few moments, and slightly bruised in the face, though not seriously.

James Faison was instantly killed in Wake county, N. C., on the 1st instant, by falling on a steam saw which he was tending.

The Montgomery Mail of the 4th, learns that thirty-three negroes, belonging to Mrs. Chambliss, whose plantation is a mile or two from the city, left the field yesterday where they were at work, and made for the wood. This is a very unusual season for negroes to run away. It is, doubtless, the doings of some vile Abolition emissary.

A Lincoln pole was recently set up at Martinsville, Ohio, and the flag to adorn it was presented by thirty-three young ladies. Sixteen of them were dressed in white, sixteen in black. The thirty-third was dressed in deep scarlet, with a red liberty cap, to represent "Bleeding Kansas." They all marched round the pole in double file, black and white arm in arm. The "red one" followed on behind, alone and weeping.

It is said that thirty men have been killed or wounded for life by thrashing machines in Indiana during the present season.

A man in the western part of Pennsylvania last week, fooling with a rattlesnake, was bitten by the reptile, and, in spite of copious doses of whiskey, died in a few hours.

On Monday last, says the Vergennes (Vt.) Citizen, the heavens were filled with millions of grasshoppers, and those which flew highest looked like thistle blows. We have not the least idea where they have gone, and we envy not those who receive their visit, for they left here very hungry.

The Franklin Barbecue.—The Franklin, N. C., Observer contains a long account of the meeting and barbecue in favor of the Blue Ridge Railroad. It is represented as a very enthusiastic meeting, some five thousand persons having been in attendance. Speeches were delivered by Judge Frost, Judge Osborne, Mr. Haskell, of Abbeville, Mr. Marshall, of Wall-halla, Hon. B. Vance and W. H. Thomas. A resolution sustaining a County subscription of $50,000 was passed unanimously.

To Writers.—The proprietor of the Darlington Southerner offers a prize of $50 for the best romance, and $25 for the second best. The editor of the Southerner also offers $25 for the best agricultural essay. Competitors are requested to send in their productions by the first of December. A sealed envelope, containing the name of the writer, must accompany each, which will not be opened until the award has been made.

A New Plot.—The Journal of Commerce, usually a reliable journal, has the following paragraph:

It is rumored that William J. Redpath, formerly reporter of Kansas outrages for the New York Tribune, has recently arrived at Port-au-Prince, presented to the Haytian government a plan for the overthrow of slavery in the United States. He is said to have promised to provide 2000 men, if the Haytian government would furnish sufficient money to equip them and keep them in the field for six months; and to have declared that this number would be sufficient, with the accessions of which they are sure in their progress through the Southern States, to liberate every slave within the period mentioned. The Haytian government concluded it had enough to do to look out for Hayti, and did not care to be swallowed up by Uncle Sam. This statement is said to emanate from government officials at Hayti. Whether entitled to credence or not, we are unable to say.

THE TRADE OF THE CITY.—It is with much satisfaction that we noticed yesterday, in passing through the great centres of the wholesale trade in Meeting and Hayne streets, that the merchants generally appeared to be fully employed, and the side-walks lined with boxes and packages, consigned to all parts of the South and South-west. We hope that this is an evidence of the determination of the people of the South to build up and sustain their own commercial cities, and allow Black Republicanism to subsist upon its own resources. Every dollar spent North of Mason and Dixon's line only adds to the wealth and resources of those who are agitating our ruin, and it becomes every true son of the South to support his own section. Our merchants are amply supplied with heavy stocks of goods, much of them imported direct, and they are determined to sell on as good terms as any Northern city.—Charleston Mercury.

DELIVERING.—Daniel Webster, in his celebrated speech, delivered at Capon Springs, Va., June 28, 1851, said:

"I do not hesitate to say and repeat that if the Northern States, wilfully and deliberately, refuse to carry into effect that part of the Constitution which respects the restoration of fugitive slaves, the South would no longer be bound to observe the compact. A bargain broken on one side is broken on all sides."

What do the old Webster Whigs say to this Yanceyism of the Great Expounder of the Constitution, now that every non-slaveholding State East of the Rocky Mountains has nullified the fugitive slave law, and wilfully and deliberately refused to carry into effect that part of the Constitution which respects the restoration of fugitive slaves.

Hon. Miles C. Fowles, for many years mayor of Vicksburg, Miss., died last week.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY,

A Political, Commercial and Literary Journal, PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY.

THE "Mercury" represents the State rights resolute element of the South. Its political creed consists in the principles of the Democratic Party as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States and Strict Construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the interests, also States; Free Trade, and an Economical Administration of the General Government. Its policy is the union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights and establishing their security.

The "Mercury" gives daily reports of Markets and Marine Intelligence of Charleston Commerce in the leading reapers of the world. The Weekly Price Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. A connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by telegraph and the earliest news by steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times), and regular correspondents in New York, Washington, New Orleans, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters are additional attraction in favor of lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive. Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the South, the Planting and Agricultural interests, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

TERMS.—PAYABLE IN ADVANCE. Daily, per annum, $10.00 Tri-weekly, " 2.00

CLUBS WILL BE FURNISHED AS FOLLOWS: Five copies of the Daily, $48.00 Five copies of the Tri-Weekly, " 50.00

The name of no person out of Charleston will be entered on our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance. Nor will orders from without the city to publish Advertisements, Marriage Notices or Obituaries, be attended to, unless the cash, or an acceptable city reference, accompany the order. Money may always be forwarded at our risk in registered letters.

Postmasters are authorized to act as Agents in obtaining subscribers and forwarding the money, and may retain twenty per cent. of the pre-payments for their trouble.

In the State, Mr. Samuel E. Burgess is our regular Agent to make collections and procure new business and subscriptions.

SCOTT & CO., New York, continue to publish the following British Periodicals, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY, Conservative. THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, Whig. THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, Free Church. THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, Liberal.

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE, Tory. These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory and Radical; but politics form only one feature of their character. As organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality and Religion, they stand as they have ever stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

EARLY COPIES. The receipt of Advance Sheets from the British publishers gives additional value to these Reprints, inasmuch as they can now be placed in the hands of our subscribers about as soon as the original editions.
